

WELLAND MUSEUM CONDITIONAL DONATION POLICY

Under the Conditional Donation Policy, all items will be received by the Museum, but will not be accepted into the Collection until reviewed by the Artefact Committee (normally within 30 days of donation). If an item does not fit the Museum's Mandate, the Donor will be contacted and given 60 days to pick up the items, after which time they become property of the Museum.

- I agree to abide by the Welland Museum Conditional Donation Policy as outlined above.
- If the item is accepted, I hereby unconditionally give and transfer full title, including all present and future rights and privileges of ownership over the material listed above, to be used, reproduced or disposed of at the discretion of the Welland Historical Museum. I give the Welland Historical Museum permission to use any of the information contained herein for the purpose of, but not exclusive to, research, publication, exhibition, donor recognition, marketing, reproduction, or museum fundraising.
- This agreement warrants that I am the legal owner of the material offered for gift and am 18 years or older.

NOTE: If these items do not fit the Museum Mandate:
Item(s) must be picked up by the donor within 60 days of notification.
After this time the items will be disposed of as the Museum sees fit.
